

Job Opening with Transgender Law Center (TLC) and Equality California (EQCA)

Position: Community Organizer for the California Trans Public Education Campaign
Location: Oakland, CA
Reports to: TLC Director of Community Engagement – California Trans Public Education Campaign
Status: Fulltime, exempt (short-term)
Deadline: Applications reviewed on a rolling basis

POSITION SUMMARY

Transgender Law Center and Equality California Institute are jointly launching a statewide public education campaign to combat widespread public misunderstanding about transgender and gender nonconforming people and the issues they face. The campaign aims to introduce the public to transgender people in a number of settings and will consist of message research, community engagement and a robust communications plan. The campaign coalition consists of a broad array of community groups including: LGBT organizations, civil rights and progressive organizations, educators, government officials, faith organizations, labor, and business.

This position will work closely with the TLC Director of Community Engagement and the TLC Director of Programs to build the campaign and support coalition members.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Support with development of public education curricula around Trans and Gender Non-Conforming issues for a variety of communities, including faith based communities, communities of color, and immigrant communities
- Support with coordination and facilitation of both phone and in person meetings, community based trainings, and campaign events
- Support coordination and facilitation of committee meetings, including email correspondence and one to ones with coalition members.
- Outreach to target organizations, communities, and schools to build a broad and diverse base to sign on to support the campaign
- Support with on the ground coalition event planning and execution

QUALIFICATIONS

- 1-3 years organizing experience, with demonstrated experience and commitment to working within communities of color and transgender and gender non-conforming communities particularly with transgender women of color preferred.
- Demonstrated ability to work with diverse individuals and communities, including the ability to facilitate diverse coalition meetings and to build consensus, and a commitment to racial justice.
- Willingness to travel as necessary.
- Demonstrated experience working with social change and civil rights groups in California.

Salary will be based on experience. This is a short term full time position that will be based out of the Bay Area, working out of the Transgender Law Center offices and will require a flexible schedule including evening and weekend work time, as well as regular travel within the region. Health care benefits are included.

Apply online with your resume, cover letter, and the names and contact details for 3 references at: <https://transgenderlawcenter.recruiterbox.com/jobs/fk06mz8>.

Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled. Please submit your application as promptly as possible.

Transgender Law Center is proud to be an affirmative action employer. People of color, women, people with disabilities, and people who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, or intersex are particularly urged to apply.

ORGANIZATIONAL BACKGROUND

Transgender Law Center (TLC) is the largest transgender advocacy organization in the U.S. The organization's advocacy and litigation victories protect and advance the rights and opportunities of transgender people across the country, even as TLC assists, informs, and empowers thousands of individual community members a year. Equality California (EQCA) is California's largest statewide lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) civil rights organization with over 800,000 members. EQCA's mission is to achieve full and lasting equality, acceptance, and social justice for members of the LGBT community.